AND ENTHUSIASTIO-HIS WESTERN TRIP. James A. Blanchard, president of the Republican Club, of this city, and the New-York member of the National Executive Committee of the Republican League, returned yesterday from his trip to Colorado. went to adjust the difficulties which had arisen in the League organization of that state. To a Tribune reporter Mr. Blanchard sald yesterday :

"I have just returned from a three weeks' absence in the West. During that time I have not kept my self well informed as to the situation in New-York, but I noticed with great satisfaction the statement made by Mr. Reid, at Springfield, that all the Republicans in this State are united and doing their full duty. I have seen into and through ten States, all of which. I believe, will cast their electoral votes for Harrison and Reid. And yet the eyes of all Western Republicans are turned toward the Empire State. They regard it as the pivetal State, and as she goes, so will the election go. In their view the responsibility of Republi-cans in this State was never greater than it is now, and if any of us fail in our duty at this time, we will greatly suffer in the esteem of Republicans in other It may be said, to our credit, however, that I tid not hear any one say that he believed any New-York Republican would fail to do his whole duty.

I went as far West as Leadville. I took my wife and boy with me and remained for a day or two in Buffale, Chicago, Omaha, Colorado springs and Denver. In all these cities I met leading Republicans and heard enly encouraging words. I conferred with the local committees at Ruffalo, having in charge the details of the National League Convention, which is to be held there on September 15. Everything is being looked after with the greatest care. I visited the place where the convention is to be held and the accommoda ions are and excellent. The Republican League, o Enffalo, has the matter in hand, and Tracy C. Becker is the chairman of the general committee. Sub-committees have been appointed to look after special matters, such as the parade, speakers and the reception of guests. The college boys are going to give special attention to the entertainment of visitors. Everybody who goes to the convention will be looked after and provided for. It will be of interest to the newspaper men to know that a room has been set apart for their special use.

The immediate object of my Western visit was to help in the organization of a Republican State League in Colorado. It was represented to the executive officers of the National League that differences had arisen among the clubs in that State and that one of the executive committee should be on the ground to I arrived there on August 12. The clubs met in convention on August 16, and I devoted the intermediate time to the work of uniting Republicans of every shade of opinion on the principles of the party, and securing their co-operation in carrying forward the work of the League. tactional politics should enter into this campaign and that the party should receive the support of all Rewho believe in Republican principles. In other words, the League, I maintained, was not an instrument for the advancement of any man or set of men, but is organized to help elect the candidates of the party after they have been nominated by the regular party machinery. This is simple and yet compre re, and it is not difficult to get Republicans to I feel that my mission was successful. There were present at the convention about 150 delegates, representing clubs in twenty-one counties of the State, and their action ripened into a State League which will do effective work throughout the campaign. Charles H. Brierly, a young lawyer of Denver, was elected president, and A. M. Skeeles, a young business man of Denver, was elected secretary, and both of them intend to make a tour of the State to organize clubs and to extend the League into every election precinct. A. F. Brady, a man of much force and an excellent speaker, was elected chairman of the subexecutive committee, and he proposes to canvass the state. I believe the work of this League will make Colorado saisly Republican. The convention selected a strong delegation to the National Convention, among them being Senators Teller and Wolcoit and Con-gressman Townsend, who will doubtless be renominated and elected to Congress. At the request of Judge Kinsley, I visited Colorado Springs and con larred with about a dozen of the leading Republicans there, and they propose to organize a County League club in each township of the county, all of which will form a part of the State League. Judge kinsley will be remembered by many Republicans in the XXIst Assembly District, where, he says, he learned how to do political work. He went to Colorado five years ago and is a much-respected Judge

I was treated with great kindness by the Republicans of Colorado, and every attention was shown me while in Denver. Mr. Sanders, the member of the National Committee from that State, could not do enough for me. What I feared would be a disagreeable duty turned out to be a great pleasure. The Republican papers extended a helping hand, and the Republican papers extended a helping hand, and the Democratic-Weaver papers were prolific but kind in their criticisms. They called me 'A Lombard-Wall Street representative.' I don't know just what that is, but if it is a good thing I hope some one will selze it as I am not open to an engagement of that kind. "Denver is a wonderful city for its age, and would be a remarkable city in any State of the Union. It is lighted chienty by efectricity, and its electric and cable systems of cars and the pavements of its streets are such as to make a New-Yorker envious. It has some magnificent buildings, and its hotels will compare favorably with the best in Chicago, and compare favorably with the best in Chicago, and there is a wealth of fine churches and elegant private residences. Nothing surprised me more than the newspapers. The Denver Republican' is a large eight-page daily, and gives the news with as much fulness as the leading dailies anywhere, and The Coloresdo Sun' is of the same general character. They are edited with more than ordinary ability and exert a wide influence throughout the State and section. Both of them are Republican.

"Denver wants the National convention of clubs next year, and the coming convention will make no mistake if it gives it to her. Her people know what hospitality is and how to extend it, and it would do the Republicans east of the Mississippi lots of good to go out there. It has everything that is necessary or desirable for the entertainment of a large number of people, and it offers in itself a rare treat for those who visit it." Democratic-Weaver papers were prolific but kind in BERGEN COUNTY'S BANNER TOWNSHIP.

Midland township, Bergen County, N. J., is prob ably more theroughly alive to the work of the paign than any township in Northern New-Jersey. migh small in territory, the Republicans of the precinct, under the energetic influence of State Committeeman C. E. Breckenridge, are manifesting the liveliest possible interest in the work of organization. At Maywood, the home of Mr. Breckenridge, the fourth Eqpublican club in Midland township was formed on Friday evening, under tuspiring circumstances. meeting was held in the large parlors of the old stone mansion, opposite the depot, but the great hall running through the building had to be utilized to accomnodate the throng of entbusiastic voters that as sembled in response to the call of President Howland, of the original Midland Republican Club. The follow ing officers were chosen: President. H. Paul Mehlin; first vice-president, F. T. May; second vice-president E. D. Howland; secretary, Paul Ackerman; treasurer, Gustav H. Jaeger; executive committee-Gustav L. laeger, C. E. Breckenridge, G. L. Brown. A constitution and rules were adopted in accordance with the form of the County League. The club will hold neetings in the old mansion every week until November, Mr. G. L. Jaeger, the owner, having given the use of the building, free of rent, as a clubhouse. State Committeeman Breckenridge has aroused an unusual degree of enthuslasm among the Republicans of Bergen County by his push and zeal. He is in frequent con-sultation with the county and township leaders, and, while urging all to their best efforts, he promises to make his own the banner township for Harrison and

SENATOR DAWES'S RETIREMENT.

THURTY-SIX YEARS HE SERVED HIS COUNTRY IN CONGRESS-A TALK WITH THE SENATOR

AT HIS HOME. Pittsfield, Mass., Aug. 27 (Special).-Senator Dawes's letter which appeared this morning stating that he was not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate, created a good deal of a sensation among his constituency in Western Massachusetts, without regard to party. Senator Dawes was seen this afternoon

"This is the thirty-fifth year that I have been in one in the House, and when my term expires I shall have been eighteen years in the Senate. I shall then be seventy-six years old, and I think it is time that some younger man in Massachusetts should take my place.

When Mr. Dawes was asked who he thought might be his successor he said that remained with the Massachuseits Legislature, and he did not care to mention any man's name. There were a good many prominent young men in the State who, he thought, could fittingly fill his position, and he was perfectly willing some one of them should do so. Mr. Dawes is in excellent health. With a smile he said: "I do not know exactly how I shall feel to be a private citizen after being in public life thirty-six years. I am the oldest member of the Massachusette delegation in Congress, and I think I have been in the continuous service of the country longer than any man now in Congress."

"In case the Massachusetts Legislature should see fit to re-elect you notwithstanding your letter, would you accept?" was asked of the senator. "I do not anticipate that such a thing will happen.

I wish to say right here, however, that I have been but I hope my friends will not urge it upon me. Senator Dawes had considerable to say about the anxious times that he, with the other Congressmen had during the war. He was there when Floyd sent the arms to the South, and through the impeachment trial of Andrew Johnson, and during the dark days of the Rebellion. He mentioned the first time he saw Lincoln and his first visit to the House the morning after that famous journey to Washington. He spoke feel ingly of Wilson and Sumner, and other distinguished men who had represented Massachusetts in the Senate. The Senator said that one of the chief regrets he had In leaving the Senate was on account of his interest in the Indians as he has been chairman of the Con mittee on Indian Affairs for many years, and had mixee on indian Affairs for many years, and had visited all the agencies in this country, including Alaska. The most important committee he was ever on, he said, was the Ways and Means, on which he served four years in the House. Among the tariff bills that went through at that time were many measures which are still on the statute books. Senaor Dawes will make a trip through the West this fall when he will visit the various Indian agencies with his committee.

TRIBUTES TO SENATOR DAWES.

Boston, Aug. 27 (Special).—Senator Dawes's at nouncement that he will retire at the end of his term and will not be a candidate for re election is eliciting some warm encombans upon Mr Dawes's career from public men of Massachusetts William M. Olin, Secretary of the Commonwealth, said; "I really do not think the people of Massachu-setts fully appreciate the value of Mr. Dawes's services. He took a leading part in all the war legisla means a leading part in the most important work Congress has done. His service in the Senate was one of the longest and one of the cleanest in the history of the United States, and the fact that he is be paid him."

sentatives, said : "Mr. Dawes has been a ver vehiable public servant. His career has been simply remarkable. His withdrawal at the present time is a surprise to most people and can only be attributed to a desire on his part to be free and only of the bisure which every man seeks after a long life of activity."

CHAIRMAN DRAPER BACK IN BOSTON.

Boston, Aug. 27 (Special).—Chairman Draper, of the Republican State Committee, has just returned from a conference with Chairman Carter and Secre-tary McComas, of the National Committee, in New-York City. He says: "I was much impressed with the appearance of both these gentlemen, and feel confident that they are the right men in the right places. Without going into the details, I can say present time is a cheerful one. They feel that they have a bard fight on hand, but with good management and persistent work they feel confident of the result. I should say that there was a general hitherto been considered doubtful, and I do not think ture the Northwestern States will achieve its object.

COLONEL PAIRMAN IN STEUEEN COUNTY.

Canistee, N. Y., Aug. 27 (Special).-The visitors at the Farmers' Club fair, at Hornellsville, had been promised a joint political discussion yesterday. The Democrats falled to appear, and Colonel James Fairman, of New-York, who came to meet them and was eager for the fray, bad to speak alone for the Republicans, while the Free Traders struck out for solltude. Colonel Fairman's address was a vote-winner from first to last. The frail strategy of Free Traders in urging us to seek a foreign market and forfeit domestic commerce was remorselessly exposed to an audience who sat in rapt attention for an hour and a balf with eyes and attention fixed on the speaker Such addresses, lucid, strong and educational, rendered in forceful Saxon, must be of great service in helping the masses to a comprehensive grasp of political economy on a plane vastly above campaign oratory.

A touching feature of such occasions was witnessed of years, pressed forward to great their comrade at the close of the address. C. W. Anderson, of New-York, accompanied the Colonel and made a short adfor General Harrison this year in Seneca County than dress. He demonstrated fully that he was an orator they did four years ago. The county naturally is of a high degree, and while the audience would Democratic by from 300 to 500 plurality. Four years gladly have heard him, he kindly gave his time to the gallant Colonel of the old 96th New-York Vol-unteers, James Fairman.

TO MEET A CANADIAN PACIFIC CUT.

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL ASSOCIATION WILL REDUCE RATES IF THE RAILROAD DOES.

By a unanimous vote the Transcontinental Asso.

ciation has agreed to meet any change in rates made by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, and adopted a resolution which may lead to the withdrawai of the subsidy paid to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. The association began its deliberations last Wednesday at the Windsor Hotel and adjourned yesterday after noon subject to the call of Chairman E. P. Vining. ome time ago the Canadian Pacific Company gav notice that on September 10 it would charge the same rates for domestic traffic as it had been charging on imported goods. It has been the custom of the roads belonging to the association to accept goods which have been billed through from European ports to points in the Western part of the United States. The affroad companies accept a proportion of the freight charges, their share depending upon the condition of trade at the time. Domestic shippers have com plained that such an arrangement often discriminate against them. The Transcontinental Association voted Jesterday that all the members should have a chance to make a change in rates if the Canadian Pacific Company carried out its plan. The representatives of the Canadian Pacific Company have left the city.

If the change is made, the Transcontinental Asso lation will at once notify the Pacific Mail Steamship Company that the arrangements between the company and the association will be at an end after the expiration of ninety days. The association, to keep up freight rates on certain classes of goods, has been making up the deficit to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company whenever the earnings of the water line fell below $75,000 a month. The proposed action of the Canadian Pacific Company would probably result in a Canadian Pacific Company would probably result in a reduction of freight rates, and there would then no longer be any advantage in paying a subsidy to the Pacific Mati. The payment of the subsidy has been a vexed question with the Transcontinental Association for some time, as the railroads cannot agree as to the proportion which each should pay. Last week the settlement of the question was postponed for four months longer.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC DOES NOT CONTROL IT. Chicago, Aug. 27 (Special).-The report that the Canadian Pacific is to control the Detroit-Chicago line of the Wabash has created considerable interest here but is denied by President Ashley. Said he to-day "The rumor that the Canadian Pacific will control our line from Detroit to Chicago is nonsense. Chairman Clark and Secretary Jamieson, of the State connect with the Canadian Pacific and the Gran Republican Committee, William J. Campbell, of the Trunk at Detroit. We exchange business with bot connect with the Canadian Pacific and the Grand National Republican Committee, and other leading companies and have friendly relations with each. We hope, the fore, to get with our new line an increased portion of the Canadian Pacific tenhage into and out Chicago, but there is no alliance other than of mutual advantage. We have laid about thirty miles of track on the new road and are going shead at the rate of about a couple of miles a day."

TO INCREASE THEIR FACILITIES.

The managers of the Toledo and Ohio Central Ralload have decided to add to the rolling stock, depot improvements, etc., and make several extensions the line. To provide for these purposes the stock-holders have been called to meet at Toledo on Septem-Ber 23, to pass upon propositions to increase the common capital stock from $4,849,000 to $8,000,000, and also to issue $2,000,000 5 per cent mortgage bonds.

JAY GOULD AND THE PARLOR CARS.

None of the Goulds was at the office in the Western Union building. Russell Sage said that he had not heard of the new enterprise and he did not believe that air, Gould was interested.

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 27 (Special).—The Richardson liaffrend law of 1501 gives the State the right to lax companies whose lines are but partly within the State on their actual earnings in Michigan, if satisfied that they are greater than the proportionate earnings for the State. FIGHTING THE DEMOCRATIC TAX LAW

Chicago, Aug. 27 (Special).-The Baltimore and Ohlo Railroad is fighting the new Democratic tax law in Indiana. Attorneys for the railroad have obtained an injunction from the Porter County Circuit Court, restraining the county treasurer from collecting or assessing taxes on the property of the road until the case is disposed of. The new action is considered necessary from the fact that many of the county treasurers heretofore engaged go out of office before the final settlement of the affair, and their successor will take charge of the office. This case is to be a test case for the whole State. It will be to by Judge Gillett at Valparaiso next Wednesday

CALLERS AT NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS. NO HALF-HOLIDAY FOR THE BUSY REPUBLICAN

WORKERS.

Although yesterday was a half-holiday in most business houses in this city, and all who could do so got away from their work as early as possible, there was no Saturday half-holiday at the Republican National headquarters. All of the members of the Executive Committee who are in the city were at the building early in the morning and remained there until late in the afternoon. William Hahn, who is in charge of the Speakers' Bureau, was the only absent member of the committee. He was called to his home in Ohio on private business, but he will be at his desk again at n early hour to-morrow morning. Chairman Carter did not have as many callers yesterday as usual, and he was able consequently to devote more time to his desk work. Early in the morning Stephen B. Elkins, secretary of War, called at the National headquarters and had a long that with Mr. Carter. The other callers were J. C. Long, the member of the Republi can National Committee from Florida, Robert P.
Porter, Superintendent of the Celisus; J. W. Baker, chairman of the State Committee from Tennessee; George W. Hill, the member of the National Committee from Tennessee; General John S. Wise and ex Congressman Benjamin Butterworth, of Ohio. Each of these men was with the chairman for some time.

There was received at headquarters yesterday a copy of "Fair Play," a paper which is published in Boston by Edward Fitzwilliam. It contains a state-ment in circular form addressed to the workingmen of the country on Grover Cleveland's legislative labor It was formulated by A. H. Gallabue, chairman of the Workingmen's Municipal Reform League, of this city, and it enumerates in order Mr. Cleve land's veto of the bill establishing a department of labor, of the Mechanics' Lien Law bill, of the Life and limb bill, muking employers responsible for accidents to employes resulting from imperfect machinery or buildings; of the Tenement-House Cigar bill, of the bill compelling the elevated railroads to charge ally 5 cents fare, of the Printers' bill, requiring all State printing to be done by Union workmen; of the our bill, appertaining to car-drivers; of the bill abolishing convict labor in prisons, of the Child Labor bill, providing for the inspection of factories and prohibiting the employment of children under fourteen years.

The circular states on the positive side that Mr. Cleveland signed the bill compelling the stationary engineers of New-York City to pay a tax of 82 a year to the New-York Police Pension Fund, or be debarred from following their calling; also the bill reducing the fees of the New-York Harbor pilots, which bill bene-fited only the foreign steamship companies. Mr. Fitzwilliam says he proposes to publish this circular in his paper until Nevember 15.

as Settle, the Republican candidate for Congress in the Vth Congress District of North Carolina. and Tyre Glenn, United States Marshal for the Western District of the same States Marshal for the Western District of the same State, also visited the Republican National headquarters yesterday. Mr. Settle, in speaking of the political situation in the old North State, said that the general outlook was more encouraging for the Republicans than he had ever known it to be. The Democratic party, he said, was literally topy to places. conraging for the Republicans than he had ever known it to be. The Democratic party, he said, was literally torm to pleces. The People's party had placed electoral, State and Congress tickets in the field, and in many countries they have nominated full county tickets. Their organization is thorough ail over the State and they mean business. As an instance, the fact may be cited that after nominating Harry Skinner for Governor, they reconsidered the nomination and put up another man by almost ananimous action, because of the State going to the Republicans he would turn the Propie's party over to the Democrats. This circumstance shows that they are in earnest, and they will wage war to the knife against the Democrats.
